#ProductCampKyiv welcomes Participants, encourages Breakout Speakers, and appreciates the help of Volunteers and support of Sponsors!

ProductCamp is an unconference event inspired worldwide by Pragmatic Marketing, driven in Ukraine by Product management Community. Participants bring the ideas, lead sessions in their area of expertise, facilitate discussions, network, or volunteer. ProductCamp is a user-driven unconference that brings together passionate product managers and marketers who are interested in collaborating to share insights, learning the best practices, and networking with other top professionals in the product community. Our agenda includes topical sessions, breaks and snacks, fun and networking. We are building Product Management Community in Ukraine together.

Product Management Community – Ukraine, <http://www.pmc.center/>, sprang in 2015 to satisfy the need of product management people in the environment for experience exchange and networking. We piloted ProductCamp in Lviv and expanded to Kyiv.
